REQUIREMENTS TO FILE

To file for a refund from a Trustee's sale, the following must apply:

1. You must be:
 - a. a former owner (trustor) of property that was sold at a trustee's sale as a result of foreclosure
OR
 - b. a party who had an interest in the property at the time of the trustee's sale
AND
2. The property was sold for MORE than the amount that was owed to the lender
AND
3. The lender's attorney has deposited the excess funds with the County Treasurer.

If there are excess proceeds as a result of the sale, a Complaint for Deposit of Excess Proceeds will be filed in the Clerk's Office by the Trustee within 90 days of the completion of the sale. A copy of the complaint should be served on you by certified mail, likely at the address of the property that was sold at the Trustee's sale, (unless you have provided them in writing with an updated address). It is in your best interest to provide the Trustee and the Treasurer's Office with your most recent mailing address as early in the process as possible in order to receive all notices regarding the money that is due back to you.

Once that Complaint is filed with the Clerk's Office, you can apply for your refund.

PLEASE FOLLOW THE DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY AND EXACTLY IN ORDER TO GET YOUR REFUND RETURNED TO YOU AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE. If you have any questions about these forms, you may call the County Treasurer's Office at (520) 724-8431. However, the County Treasurer's Office does not give legal advice.

PROCESS OVERVIEW

Filing for a refund is typically a four to six step process:

If no other party has filed an application for the proceeds:

You file:

- 1) An Application for the funds
- 2) An Affidavit of Mailing pursuant to A.R.S. § 33.812(G)
- 3) A Notice of Lodging of the proposed order
- 4) And finally, an Order Releasing Funds to you.

OR

If another party to the case files an application for the proceeds:

You file:

- 1) A reply to their application or response *
- 2) An application for the funds
- 3) An Affidavit of Mailing pursuant to A.R.S. § 33.812(G)
- 4) A Notice of Lodging (of the proposed order)
- 5) And finally, an Order Releasing Funds.

*You may have to attend a hearing if the judge deems necessary.

If you received a NOTICE OF IMPENDING DISMISSAL or an ORDER OF DISMISSAL, there will be an additional step required. A MOTION TO REINSTATE CASE AND CONTINUE ON ACTIVE CALENDAR or an ORDER SETTING ASIDE ORDER OF DISMISSAL AND REINSTATING CASE TO ACTIVE CALENDAR, depending on the situation, will be required beforehand. These forms can be obtained through the Pima County Treasurer's Office at 240 N. Stone Ave., Tucson, AZ 85701.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. How long does the process take for me to receive my refund?

The refund process generally takes anywhere from about two months to eight months, depending on if there are any other applications filed for the proceeds.

2. What if there is a lien holder who also has claim to the funds?

If there is a party who holds a deed of trust or a judgment lien on the property, this party may get paid before you are entitled to receive any funds.

3. How much time do I have in which to apply for the refund?

The lawful owner has two years from the date of the deposit with the Treasurer's Office to apply for his refund. If the funds remain unclaimed after the two year period, the County Treasurer will remit those unclaimed funds to the Arizona State Revenue Department. The funds would be on deposit with the Unclaimed Property Department and you will then have to claim those funds through that department.

4. Can I file for the refund if I have filed bankruptcy?

Yes, but if your bankruptcy is still pending contact your attorney or the bankruptcy trustee and let them know of your right to claim the proceeds.

5. Are there any fees or costs involved in my applying to get my refund?

Yes, there is a filing fee of approximately $174.00 which must be paid when you file your application. You will also have to send copies by certified mail which will be an additional expense.

6. How does marital status affect my right to the excess proceeds?

If you are married, in order to have the full amount of the proceeds that are due back to you, both parties will have to sign the application. If only one of the married parties signs the application, that person will only be entitled to ½ of the proceeds.

If you are separated or divorced, you will only be entitled to ½ of the proceeds that are due back to you.

7. I am now divorced or have filed for divorce. How does this affect my right to the refund?

Provide the Treasurer's office with a copy of your divorce decree. You may only be entitled to ½ of the proceeds.

8. What if I owned the home prior to being married, but did not add my present spouse to the title?

Then you are the only party legally entitled to the proceeds.

9. What if I owned the home prior to being married, added my spouse to the title but not to the note?

Then both of you are legally entitled to the proceeds and both of you will have to apply in order to get the full amount refunded to you.

10. What if my spouse is deceased but his/her name remains on the title?

A death certificate should be attached to your application to prove that you are the only party entitled to the disbursement.

11. An agency or attorney's office has contacted me regarding the funds that are on deposit. Do I need an attorney to get my refund?

If you choose not to file on your own behalf to have your refund returned to you, you can consult with an attorney. There are also "finder" or "locator" agencies which you can pay for assistance in recovering your refund. The statute allows for these agencies to charge a fee, plus legal fees. However, the County Treasurer's Office does not endorse or recommend any particular party for that service.

APPLICATION
for excess proceeds from the Trustee's sale of property

The Application for Excess Proceeds tells the court and any interested parties that you are applying to get your refund which is on deposit with the County Treasurer.

1) FILL OUT FORM # 1a, the APPLICATION FOR EXCESS PROCEEDS.

2) MAKE A COPY of the application for EACH party named in the complaint which was filed with the court. Be sure to include ALL parties at each of the addresses named on the list of persons incorporated or attached to the complaint. Always include a copy to mail to the County Treasurer's office and to the County Attorney's Office.

If you didn't receive a copy of the complaint by mail from the Trustee's office, you can obtain a copy from the Clerk of Court.

3) FILE the original APPLICATION FOR DISTRIBUTION OF EXCESS PROCEEDS with the Clerk of Court, Superior Court, Civil Division, at 110 W. Congress Street, Tucson, Arizona 85701. There is a fee of approximately $174.00 which the Clerk charges to file papers in response to a suit. You can inquire with the Clerk's Office about having that fee waived or deferred at (520) 724-3200.

Have the Clerk's office date-stamp EACH copy of the application for each interested party.

4) Mail, BY CERTIFIED MAIL, a copy of your application to each party. Be sure to use the addresses attached to the complaint. SAVE each certified mail receipt for each party. Be sure to include mailing a copy by certified mail to the Pima County Treasurer, as well.

When you receive the signed green card from the addressee, save this card. Also, save any envelopes that did not reach the addressee and which were returned to you.

ORDER DISBURSING FUNDS

The Order Disbursing Funds directs the County Treasurer to release your refund to you.

AFTER THE 10 DAYS HAVE PASSED:

1. Fill out form 4a, the ORDER TO RELEASE EXCESS PROCEEDS.
2. ATTACH a copy of Notice of Lodging that was previously submitted as well and the sample cover letter (4c) which is provided in the packet. This letter directs the Judge to review and sign your order and requests a mailing to the interested parties.
3. MAIL the Order, Notice of Lodging and cover letter to the Judge's chambers for his/her signature. Provide a copy of the order and an envelope with pre-paid postage for each party, including a copy to be mailed back to you.

Once the Treasurer is in receipt of the conformed, clerk-stamped copy, it will be forwarded to the County Attorney's Office for review and, upon approval, will disburse the refund check. This process takes anywhere from 3 days to 2 weeks.

The Treasurer's Office will deduct up to $100 for each check that is disbursed out of the proceeds as an administrative fee.

You may contact the County Treasurer's Office at (520) 724-8341 to check on the status of your check. You can pick up your check or it can be mailed to you.
